

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE 31ST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Radar American Tradition

Institute, et al.
Plaintiff

v.
Rector & Visitors of UVA
and Michael Mann
Defendant

Case No. CL11-3236

ORDER

THIS MATTER was heard this day, November 1, 2011, on

Motion of UVA to Revoke Protective order of May 24, 2011

IT APPEARING that this Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine this matter; that each party entitled to notice has been notified; and based upon:

1. _____ the agreement of the parties; OR
2. X the evidence before this Court that this Order should be entered;

it is therefore

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED as follows:

The motion of UVA to modify the ^{May 24, 2011} protective order is granted. The parties are directed to identify a neutral third, ^{to} and the process for ^{sampled} review of the documents in question. The stay of production is continued.

ENTERED this 1st day of Nov., 2011.

Stephona Finch
JUDGE

This matter is cont to December 30, 2011 10:00 A.

SEEN and AGREED/OBJECTED TO:

SEEN and AGREED/OBJECTED TO:

Suzanne Dewey
Counsel for ~~Plaintiff~~ Intervenor/
VS# 44347 Respondent
Counsel for Michael Mann

R. C. Kant
Counsel for Defendant
VS# 13381

Counsel for Plaintiff Shane #44522 seem to object